Code of Conduct UXinsight 2020

All attendees, speakers, sponsors and volunteers at UXinsight are required to agree with the following code of conduct. We expect cooperation from all participants to help ensure a safe environment for everybody. We expect participants to follow these rules at the conference and workshop venue, conference-related social events and online communities and - media.

Our conference is dedicated to treating all individuals respectfully, regardless of gender, gender identity and expression, age, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, ethnicity, religion (or lack thereof), or technology choices. We do not tolerate harassment of conference speakers, participants or staff in any form.

Harassment includes offensive verbal comments related to gender, gender identity and expression, age, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, ethnicity, religion, technology choices, sexual images in public spaces, deliberate intimidation, stalking, following, harassing photography or recording, sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention.

If you are being harassed, notice that someone else is being harassed, or have any other concerns, please contact a member of conference staff immediately. Conference staff can be identified as wearing branded clothing and/or badges.

Participants asked to stop any harassing behaviour are expected to comply immediately. Conference participants violating these rules will be expelled from the conference without a refund at the discretion of the conference organisers.

As UXinsight 2020 is a collaboration between UXinsight and the Research Ops Community, the ResearchOps community guidelines are also applicable.
